

$350,000 FIRE PERIL
TO WINTER GARDEN

J. J. Shubert Cut by Falling Glass and Several Firemen Just Escaped Injury.

Workmen to-day will complete repairs on the Winter Garden, slightly damaged by a $350,000 four-story fire, which caused injury to several persons and brought out a large crowd in the Broadway theatrical district at 3 A. M. yesterday. J. J. Shubert was slightly cut by falling glass.

While Capt. Francis J. Ford of Engine Company No. 34 was working in the auto accessory establishment of Dunklin & Marks, 51st Street and Seventh Avenue, where the fire began, the floor collapsed, dropping the entire company to the cellar. The men were rescued by Capt. Dennis McNamara of Engine Company 15. About the same time seven firemen working their way into the Winter Garden with hoses were caught in a back draught. They were overcome by smoke and had to be treated by ambulance surgeons.

Battalion Chief Curtin lost his way in the cellar of the accessory shop. His calls were heard by Fireman Hamilton of Engine Company No. 30, who slid down a line of hose to find his superior officer unconscious. Both had to be hauled up by comrades.

The auction rooms of Floyd Grant & Co., Inc., containing a collection of antique and modern furniture, were destroyed. The collection was to have been auctioned off to-day.

NO CHARGE FOR ALTERATIONS

We are daily attracting crowds of knowing, value seeking buyers to our Upstairs Monroe Shops who are taking advantage of the unusual opportunity our arrangement to dispose of the wholesale stocks of several New York Clothing Manufacturers affords.

Here's the explanation:

Last Spring, you remember, we shook the market up by selling Clothes at retail at less than Wholesale Manufacturing costs (by making those the terms under which we co-operated with Manufacturers who were overloaded). This Fall the same thing has again happened, and by reason of it you are now offered your unrestricted choice of over

How About Your Weight?

Do you realize that unless your weight is up to normal you are actually in danger of serious illness?

No insurance company will insure those who are underweight. Many thin people find that they gain weight steadily while taking Pather John's Medicine.

The pure food tonic elements, which are contained in this old-fashioned prescription strengthen and build up those who are thin, weak and run down. It is real food and in a form which even the weakened system can easily take up.—Advt.
